PROCLAMATION BY THE MAYOR OF LOUISVILLE.

Pledges to Use All His Power to Prevent Violations of the Sunday Law.

To the Citizens of Louisville:

On the 13th day of May, 1906, I received the following letter from the Governor of Kentucky:

Commonwealth of Kentucky, Executive Department, Frankfort, May 12, 1906.—Hon. Paul Barth, Mayor, Louisville, Ky.—My Dear Sir: In addressing you this communication, I must explain that my reason for doing so is to be found in Section 81 of the Constitution of Kentucky, which reads as follows: "He (the Governor) shall take care that the laws are faithfully executed." It is therefore, unquestionably the duty of the Governor whenever his attention is seriously called to the violation of any law in the Commonwealth, and especially when there is a persistence in such violation, to take all steps which the Constitution and laws may authorize him to do, in seeing "that the laws be faithfully executed." His powers in such a case may not be specifically described by law, but in the end seem adequate to accomplish the purpose. However, with the active and cordial co-operation of the local or municipal authorities, there can be no delay or difficulty in the successful enforcement of any law. I wish now to call your attention to Section 1303 of the Kentucky Statutes, which reads as follows:

"SUNDAY—KEEPING PLACE FOR SALE OPEN ON. Any person who shall, on Sunday, keep open a barroom or other place for the sale of spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors, or who shall sell or otherwise dispose of such liquors, or any of them, on Sunday, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars for each offense."

And also to Section 1321 of the Statutes which reads as follows:

"SUNDAY—WORK OTHER THAN WORK OF CHARITY PROHIBITED. No work or business shall be done on the Sabbath day, except the ordinary household office, or other work of necessity or charity, or work required in the maintenance or operation of a ferry, skiff or steamboat, or street or railroad. If any person on the Sabbath day shall himself be found at his own, or any other trade or calling, or shall employ his apprentices, or other person, in labor or other business, whether the same be for profit or amusement, unless such as is permitted above, he shall be fined not less than two nor more than fifty dollars for each offense. Every person or apprentice so employed shall be deemed a separate offense. Persons who are members of a religious society, who observe as a Sabbath any other day in the week than Sunday, shall not be liable to the penalty prescribed in this section, if they observe as a Sabbath one day in each seven, as herein provided."

It has recently been represented to me by a considerable number of prominent citizens of Louisville that these statistics are constantly violated in that city by saloons and theaters being allowed to remain open for business on Sundays. The information given me is such that it cannot be disregarded, and I trust that the cause of the complaint may soon be removed by effective action upon your part. May I not hope, therefore, that if such things be true, you will as Mayor of the city, take immediate steps to see that these statutes are not again violated? In such event allow me to assure you of my hearty and prompt support in every possible way. I am sure you will not consider this advice as an unwarranted intrusion upon your authority when you remember the obligation placed upon the Governor in Section 81 of the Constitution above referred to. My sincere and high regard for you both as a man and as an official would forbid me from reflecting in the least upon your fidelity to duty and honesty of purpose in discharging the responsible duties of Mayor of our metropolis. I am sure that no official could be more conscientious in such matters than yourself. Permit me, then, to urge you that the laws against the open saloon and open theater in the city of Louisville on Sundays be rigidly enforced through your power as Mayor. In such action I guarantee there will be back of you, applauding your work, and assisting you, not only a large majority of the best people of your city, but an overwhelming voice of approval from the people of the entire Commonwealth. Crime and misery have no more fertile fields in which to spread and increase than in the discretion of the Sabbath by the violation of these laws, and no more honorable or worthy achievement could be made by your excellent administration than by their rigid enforcement. My attention was never officially called to this matter nor my aid invoked until within the last month, and the complaints are of such high character and standing, their cause is so just and righteous, that they deserve our prompt and favorable response. In any way possible that I might be of service to you in the matter command me.

With assurances of great respect I am, very sincerely yours,
J. C. W. BECKHAM,
Governor of Kentucky.

To this letter I replied as follows: Executive Office, City of Louisville, May 15, 1906.—Hon. J. C. W. Beckham, Governor of Kentucky, Frankfort, Ky. Dear Sir:

Your letter of May 12, in regard to the enforcement of the law requiring the closing of saloons and theaters on Sunday is received. I have given this subject much thought during the few months I have been Mayor of Louisville. I am advised that the Criminal Division of the Jefferson Circuit Court on several occasions prior to the incumbency of the present Judge, held the Statute which you quote against the Sunday saloons (being Section 1303) to be unconstitutional. In March last the present Board of Public Safety ordered the arrest of those engaged in operating Sunday theaters. Warrants were issued against them under the other Statute you quote (Section 1321) and the Police Court discharged all of the prisoners.

I stand ready in this and in all other matters, to do what I can to enforce the law and I thank you very much for your assurance of "early and prompt support in every possible way." With the co-operation of the State, county and city officials there should be some way devised to secure an observance of these Statutes. I will be pleased to have your views as to the proper course to be pursued, and in what way the State authorities will assist. Judge Richards the City Attorney, will be in Frankfort on Thursday, May 17, at which time I would be glad if you would permit him to confer with you on this whole subject.

With the highest appreciation of your expressions of regard and confidence, which are most cordially reciprocated, I am, sincerely yours,
PAUL C. BARTH,
Mayor.

[Copy.] If hereafter there are any violations of either of the statutes the Board of Public Safety, through the Police Department, will see that the offenders are presented either in Police Court or in the Circuit Court for prosecution. The witnesses will also be presented to the License Board and to the County Court for the purpose of procuring a cancellation of the city and State license of such dealers as may have violated the law with respect to the sale of liquor on Sunday. If the courts decide these statutes are valid and should be enforced I will use ALL THE POWER vested to me as Mayor TO PREVENT ANY FURTHER VIOLATIONS THEREOF.

PAUL C. BARTH, Mayor
LETTERS TO BINGHAM AND HUFFAKER.

Governor Beckham, After Conference With Mayor, Calls On Them To Aid In Enforcing The Law.

After his conference with Mayor Grand Jury City Attorney Rich closing and all House this afternoon if the Beckham prepared munty bones the following letters:

1906.—Hon. Joseph Lawrence Commonwealth's Attorney, Middletown, Ky.—My Dear Sir: With time ago a large number of citizens of Louisville represented to me that Section 1303 and Section 1321 of the Kentucky Statutes were constantly violated in that city by saloons and theaters being allowed to keep open on Sundays. Under Section 81 of the Constitution it is made the duty of the Governor to "see that the laws are faithfully executed," and consequently after this complaint was made to me I communicated with the Mayor of Louisville and respectfully requested that he should take all steps necessary to prevent future violations of these statutes. The Mayor has expressed to me an earnest desire to see that the laws are enforced, but he felt that it is necessary for him to have the hearty co-operation of the Commonwealth's Attorney in such steps as we may take. I, therefore, wish to join with him in the request that as Commonwealth's Attorney you will give us all aid possible in fulfilling the obligations placed upon us by the Constitution and laws, and knowing your conscientious desire to perform your official duties I am sure your services will be of great value.

With assurances of kind regard, I am, very sincerely yours,
J. C. W. BECKHAM,
Governor of Kentucky.

May 22, 1906.—Hon. Robert Bingham, County Attorney Jefferson County, Louisville, Ky.—My Dear Sir: Upon representations made to me by a large number of good citizens of Louisville that Section 1303 and Section 1321 of the Kentucky Statutes were being constantly violated by allowing saloons and theaters to remain open in the city on Sundays. I communicated with the Mayor and requested that he take all steps necessary to prevent further violations of those statutes. The Mayor has expressed to me his earnest desire to see the laws enforced and also wishes that you give him your co-operation as County Attorney in the matter. Of course I know it is your desire to perform your official duties in every respect and I am sure that this communication is thoroughly understood by you as not carrying the slightest reflection. The obligation placed upon me by Section 81 of the Constitution makes it my duty to see as far as possible, "that the laws are faithfully executed." I, therefore, join with the Mayor in requesting that you give him your assistance in such steps as he may take to enforce these laws. I call your attention to subdivision 2, Chapter 108, of the Kentucky Statutes, wherein by Section 4204 it is declared unlawful for any liquor dealer holding a State license "to sell liquor on Sunday;" and wherein by Sections 4208 and 4210 it is made your duty to institute proceedings to cancel the license of any such offender. With assurances of great respect, I am, very sincerely yours,

J. C. W. BECKHAM,
Governor of Kentucky.

WHAT OTHERS THINK OF REV. ANDREW JUDSON'S ARTICLE.

Former Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Mt. Sterling, Ky.

This world always has a great big place in its heart for a genuine man. Over in Hosierville in the county of White, about 27 years ago a young man then about sixteen years of age organized a prayer meeting among the boys and girls of the church out of which was to grow in days to come a Young People's Society, which for all the years since has been one among the foremost of the powers for righteousness in the town of Monticello. This young man is today the Rev. A. J. Arick, who so successfully conducted the meeting for boys and girls in the Coliseum meeting during the last days of the revival here in 1892, he graduated from Wash College in 1888, and after a course in theology in the McCormick Seminary at Chicago he entered upon the work of the active ministry in Hartford, Conn. He has been in the pastorate ever since, but from his earliest days of interest in religious work he has been the special friend of boys and girls and young people in general. During a pastorate of twelve years in the State of Kentucky he was a member of the State Executive Committee of the Christian Endeavor Union, and for a time president of the union. A pastorate in the city of Louisville, Ky. brought him into touch with the Industrial School of Reform and the Orphanage which is situated there. The writer of this article has been privileged to be present at some of the services of the boys and girls of these places and it is a sight of a lifetime to see them file into the great auditorium small youth so splendid to see, every one of them with a soul of wondrous possibilities, and to see the intense interest with which they hang on the speaker's words, is a rare treat. This hanging on the speaker's words is, however, altogether independent of who the speaker is. Any one who has ever seen a children's meeting knows this. Mr. Arick never had any trouble in holding their attention. Simple in his manner and speech, quick to catch every opportunity for living home a thought, his ability to hold the interest of an audience of children is a natural result.

Mr. Arick is descended from a long line of ministers, being a great grandson of Rev. James Fowler, D. D., one of the pioneer ministers of western Pennsylvania, a mighty man of God, who organized Jefferson College, which afterwards became a part or what is today known as Washington Jefferson College. Not a bit of the intense zeal and earnestness which characterized his ancestors has been lost in Mr. Arick. He is an indefatigable worker, a man whose deeds and usually does what he undertakes.

DRUG STORES

Will Not be Allowed to Make Illegal Sales of Whisky.

Information has been lodged with Mayor Combs to the effect that some of the local drug stores are suspected of having sold whisky last Sunday over their counters without any prescriptions from regular practicing physicians and that such practices are being resorted to as a means of evading the Sunday closing law.

Mayor Combs of Lexington determined to prevent the sale of whisky by drug stores and to strictly and impartially enforce the Sunday closing law in both letter and spirit. What Combs will do for law violations will be a plenty.

Order To The Chief.

Lexington, Ky., May 22, 1906.
J. J. Reagan, Esq., Chief of Police City.

Dear Sir:—It has been reported to me that certain drug stores sold and dispensed whisky last Sunday. I request that you investigate these rumors and that you will take such steps as will prevent the illegal sale of whisky in any drug store on every future Sunday.

Yours truly,
THOMAS A. COMBS, Mayor.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce Judge John E. Cooper, of the county of Montgomery, a candidate for Congress subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce Judge H. Clay McKee as a candidate for Congress in the Tenth District, subject to the action of the Republican party, in convention or otherwise.

We are authorized to announce A. F. Ryd, of Winchester, Clark county, a candidate for Congress in the Tenth District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Conquer evil or it will conquer you.

Sentiment in favor of temperance is growing.

Is it not strange that some Christian men will patronize and apologize for the saloon? We expect soon to see saloons banished from our city.

If the saloon business is helpful to the masses, if its fruits are an honor to a community, if it makes better men and happier homes, why should it be so heavily taxed? Why not put it on an equal footing with other business enterprises?

NO ONE CARES

The thought that "no one cares and no one knows" blights many a bud of promise. Be it the young artist at the easel, the workman at his bench, the boy at his mathematical problems or your little girl at the piano, give what praise you can—Exchange.

We have time and again heard it said that political parties should settle their difficulties, make their complaints, express their objections "within themselves" (i. e. before the nominees have been chosen) and should support whatever and whomsoever the leaders or conventions decide upon and choose. We do not think that this course is always wise or right, and we have not always so acted, nor do we expect so to act, so far as supporting nominees is concerned. Perhaps we have erred too in that we have not publicly expressed as strongly as we should our objection to some candidates.

Voters are not consistent when they they advocate sobriety, purity, industry and honesty, and at the same time vote for a man or men who are known to be drunk, licentious, lazy and dishonest. We do not think it is safe for patriotic and God fearing people to refrain from participation in political campaigns, or to allow the average politician to decide for them what the moral standard should be.

The powers for evil are aggressive and if they are to be subdued, there must be a determined effort on the part of patriotic, Christian men to persuade, cultivate, warn and educate the indifferent or vicious.

Again we urge our readers to carefully consider the moral fitness of prospective candidates.

Streets.

From present indications Main and Mayville Streets in the business sections will be real streets, next to brick streets. We hope the increase of expense will be justified. Some arrangements should be made for sprinkling.

FACTS and OBSERVATIONS

The writer spent Thursday and Friday around Grassy Lick and North Middletown. Heavy rain fell on both days, making fine to becco season.

We observed that the pikes in Montgomery show more defects than in Clark.

We dropped in at dinner hour at the home of Jas. F. Caywood. His wife is an expert maker of angel-food cake.

Several parties are now negotiating with Mr. Trimble for the yellow pine and other valuable lumber on same tract of land.

WEDDING GIFT IN FRANCE.

Each Couple Is Presented by the Government with a Little Book.

When the civil ceremony of marriage is performed in France the official who conducts it passes to the newly-wedded pair a little book, which is the wedding gift of the French government. This book contains an official record of the wedding and a number of blank spaces for future births, marriages and deaths in the family.

The most important feature of the small volume, however, is contained in about six pages that are devoted to the special instructions which the Academy of Medicine has prepared on the care of young children. These instructions number 35 in all and they refer to the feeding and clothing of infants and to the further protection of the helpless child.

This curious little wedding gift was inspired by the deep thought which the government has given to the subject of the reduction of infant mortality, a problem of the utmost importance in view of the backward movement in population in France.

Mr. R. H. Stockton, President of Majestic Manufacturing Co., St. Louis, Mo., who left here in 1887 writes: "I hope to pay Mt. Sterling a visit during 'Home Coming.' We remember Mr. Stockton with pleasure and extend a most hearty welcome to his coming. May many ex-Montgomery people turn this way."

Congressman Kills Himself.

Robert Adams, Congressman from Pennsylvania, serving his seventh term committed suicide. The only key to his motive for self-destruction is found in his letter to Speaker Cannon, written on the eve of his suicide, in which he said that "the fact that my personal obligations exceed my resources is my only excuse for abandoning the responsible position I occupy in the House." One report states that he had lost heavily at bridge whist, while another ascribes his losses to speculation in stocks.

Young Bros. of North Middletown, sons of J. W. Young, sold their crop of tobacco, about 12,000 pounds, at 9c; the product of 8 acres, about $135 per acre. They sold to Boardman & Whaley 21 182 lb hogs at 54c. They were 9 months old, the pigs of two litters, and brought $220.20. Last year they sold the product of one sow in one year for $235.

General Baptist Association.

On account of the General Association of Kentucky Baptists the Southern Railway will sell excursion tickets from stations on its line in Kentucky to Richmond on June 24 and 25 with final return limit of July 5th, 1906, at rate of one fare plus 25 cents for the round trip.

Sunday Closing in Lexington

Judge Parker in his charge to Grand Jury says that Sunday closing and all other laws can be enforced if the people of the community honestly desire to do so.

Lawrence Mitchell, of North Middletown, has accepted a position with Davis & Mitchell (his father's firm) of that town.

That Interurban Line.

The stockholders of the Paris, Mt. Sterling and North Middletown interurban line met at Paris and elected the following Board of Directors:

John T. Collins and W. A. Thomson, of North Middletown; Jung-H. Clay McKee and J. M. Bigstaff, of Mt. Sterling, and Messrs. R. J. Neely, Robert C. Talbott and Henry A. Power, of Paris. After the election of the Board of Directors, the following officers were elected: Robert C. Talbott, president; John T. Collins, vice president; Henry A. Power, treasurer, and H. Clay McKee, secretary.

The prospects for the early construction of the road are flattering.

Late reports indicate that the Americans may have been the aggressors in the deadly outbreak in Mexico. Thirty-five Mexicans were killed to six Americans. No further trouble is expected, and both Governments view the affair in a conciliatory light.

Indiana for Bryan.

Democrats of Indiana will meet in Indianapolis on Thursday and nominate a State ticket. A platform, already drafted, indorses W. J. Bryan for the presidency in 1908.

E. C. Schooler, one of our most correct business men, has accepted a position with Harry Lynthecum, where he would be delighted to see his friend.

Our parsonage fund is growing and will soon be sufficient for us to take active steps toward building or buying. We have at this time $620 on hand.

THE PASTOR.

Sharp competition for State Printing and the State Superintendent of Printing came to a close on last Friday. First and second class went to Louisville to the Globe Printing Co., third class to James E. Hughes, a Mt. Sterling boy, now of Lexington, one of Kentucky's most deserving young men and J. W. Hedden, of the Advocate, became the Superintendent of Printing of Kentucky.

Too Much Religion.

Mrs. Kate R. Taylor, of Louisville, was found in an apparently unbalanced condition in Washington, and overstudy on religion is ascribed as the cause of her temporary illness.

FLAME FROM SKY

Barbedes Hundred Men Pro
Upon the Field, Killing Five and Injuring 25.

THUNDERBOLTS WROUGHT HAYOC

At a Baseball Game in Alabama, Pur suing the Spectators and Fur rowing the Ground.

The Lightning Struck Hardest in the Densest Part of the Crowd, Hur ling the On-lookers to Every Quarter.

Mobile Ala., May 15.—Five men were killed and 25 terribly injured by a thunderbolt three miles from this city Sunday afternoon. The lightning struck in the midst of 1000 spectators at a ball game in an open field, and killed five persons, who were on it slightly hurt, were knocked uncon scious. The day was extremely hot and humid. At 3 o'clock a thunder storm gathered in the west and travel ed straight for the ball field. A game between two local teams was being closely contested, seven innings hav ing been played, with the score tied at two runs each.

There was no protection from the storm. Before the rain there was a wonderful display of sheet lightning and some of the spectators became alarmed. The field was elevated, being the highest ground for half a mile around. Some man in the crowd said that the danger of being struck by lightning was great, but ridicule by the mass of the spectators prevented any one from seeking a safer spot. The fall of rain was terrific and the roar of thunder was continuous. Suddenly there was a deafening crash directly over the field and lightning seemed to fall over the entire crowd. The bolt roared along the ground, creating a zigzag course, and in several places cutting a furrow more than a foot deep.

It seemed that the whole field was afame with electricity. Men were down in every direction, and a re markable fact was that men were killed 50 to 100 feet apart, while hun dreds of others came through unscathed.

The lightning struck hardest in the densest part of the crowd. The spec tators were hurled to every quarter, and more than 100 were knocked flat on the instant. It is agreed by all who came through the awful experience that there were five or six powerful thunderbolts, the first being most de structive.

The clothes were burned off Donald Toant, aged 21 years. Toant was the son of a merchant and one of the best known youths in the country. His face was left unrecognizable and a watch in his waistcoat pocket was run into a piece of shrapnel metal. Half a dozen silver coins in his pocket were fused. The other dead are: Steven Toant, a brother; Arthur Moody, 19 years old; John Green and Charles Thomas.

When the last bolt had fallen a pa thetic sight was witnessed. All over the field men were struggling to their feet, while there lay scores senseless.
It was half an hour before the last of the unconscious men had regained his senses. Then, when the dead and injured had been carried to the field remained strewn with the remain s of clothing of every description.
There were torn hats and coats, broken shoes and pieces of trousers, and in one instance the underwear had been carried clean from a man's body.
A silver dollar taken from the pocket of Moody was melted on one side, while the other was not marked.

POLICEMAN MORTON.

Who Played a Prominent Part in Trial of Bertha Cliche, Attempts Suicide.

New York, May 15.—Harry Morton, a policeman, who played a prominent part in the trial of Bertha Cliche for the killing of Emil Gordon, several months ago, made three unsuccessful attempts to commit suicide after he has been indicted by the grand jury on a charge of having committed per jury at the Cliche trial. While wait ing in the office of a deputy police commissioner he placed a revolver to his temple, but was prevented from firing. When given a glass of water he bit a piece of glass in with his teeth, and then attempted to stab him self with his pocket knife.

THREE MEN DROWNED.

One Thrown Out of a Launch and Row boat Containing Two Capsized.

New York, May 15.—Three men were drowned Sunday afternoon by a squalid boat passed over Sheephead bay Joseph Harrison, of Brooklyn, was thrown out of the launch which was pitching in a heavy sea and about the same time a rowboat containing two men was swamped and the occupants died.

Earthquake in Michigan.

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 15.—The most devastating earthquake ever experi enced in this region occurred at the Ann Arbor mine. There were more than 50 city block shocks. Buildings rock ed violently and in several places there are cracks in the earth from two to six inches in width. The shock was distinct to Brighton and High land, but did no damage. The Alamo the shut down as the result of these disturbances.

SWITZERLAND UNIVERSITIES

Educational Institutions That Are a Great Credit to the Nation.

Geneva is only one of the univer sities of little Switzerland.
Bazel, founded in 1640; Loosdun, founded as an academy in 1537, and as a university in 1890; Zu rich, founded in 1832; Bern, found ed in 1834; Freiburg, founded in 1889, each secured a high educa tional place, though in its historic impressiveness Geneva is unique. But Geneva and her five companions, says Harper's Magazine, are noble illustrations of the spirit and power of democ racy. Their support is derived largely from the cantons in which they are located. Although the constitution of 1848 authorized the federal government to erect and to maintain a polytechnic school and university, the university has not been established. The cantons support their universities with a willingness which is as great as obtains in the states of the American union touch ing their respective states universi ties. The University of Zurich is maintained by a commonwealth of but 350,000 people, and within an area of less than 700 square miles.
Basel, with a population of less than 100,000, supports its univer sity. They are examples of the power of an enlightened democ racy which interests itself in the highest education. This interest is not confined, either, to the cause of liberal learning, for the technical schools of Zurich are among the best of the world.

Rugs, Modern and Antique.
Because many antiques are ad mirable is no reason for denying the merit of modern rugs. There are more rugs of high quality be ing woven to-day than ever before, and this is due principally to the fact that there is a better market for them than ever before. The United States alone imports $1, 000,000 worth a year—about $2, 500,000 before the duty is paid.
No wonder that the shah of Per sia sends the rug-weaving indus try tenderly, bestowing orders and honorable rewards on suc cessful rug merchants and inflict ing the most severe penalties for the use of aniline dyes or anything unsuited to the brilliant Persian tints to disrepute the country life in America.

Extraordinary Golf Drive.

It is stated by the secretary of the Weston super Mare club that when playing on that course a few days ago Mr. Douglas Robinson accomplished an extraordinary drive. The distance from the six teenth tee to the green is 305 yards, and there is a bunker just guarding the green, but Mr. Rob inson is said to have carried the ball over his drive, that is, to have driven his ball so that it went over the bunker before it touched the ground. In the ordi nary way 160 yards or 170 yards represents the carry of a very fine drive. The longest drive (carry and run combined) on record is generally understood to be one done by Mr. Edward Blackwell at St. Andrews some years ago, when he drove his ball 366 yards.

Under Woman's Sway.

Between the mountains of In dia and Persia is a powerful influ ence among whom an extraordinary custom prevails. Woman's rights have apparently received full rec ognition, for the ladies of the tribe can choose their own hus bands. All a single woman has to do when she wishes to change her state is to send a servant to pin a handkerchief to the hat of the man on whom her fancy lights, and he is obliged to marry her, un less he chooses that he is too poor to purchase her at the price her father requires.

Safe.

Kuicker—Would you give your seat to a woman who was plain or old?
Booker—Well, I'd give it to any woman who thought she was either.
—N. Y. Sun.

Aerial Ignorance.

Tommy Twaddles—Pa, what's

Pa Twaddles—Tommy, I'm ashamed of you. Didn't you ever land Leader.

Bad Taste.

DREDGING FOR GOLD.

The Yield in California Exceeds That of Other Mining Meth ods.

The latest evolution in the sys tems and appliances of gold min ing is that of the dredge. The yield in California from the dredges now exceeds the com bined yield of the hydraulic and drift mines of the state, and also greatly exceeds the placer yield.
The system of dredging, says the Sunset Magazine, is practically a form of placer mining, where im proved modern appliances are utilized to handle large quantities of auriferous material in a brief space of time, and without the use of water under high heads, or the necessity of long tunnels.
As a usual thing, ground sup posed to be suitable for dredging is not bought outright, while still unproven. It is taken under bond for a specified time and for a spec ified price, those who bond it being expected to go to the expense of running the prospecting drills and of proving the ground. If the ex pected values are not forthcoming, the bond lapses, whereas, if the prospecting shows the ground to be valuable for the purposes desired, then the purchase is con cluded according to the terms of the bond. Aside from a partial payment, time enough is usually given so that a certain proportion of the purchase price may be ob tained from the ground itself through the medium of the dredges. The price of available ground of this character is gradu ally being advanced, so that, ex cept in unproven localities, it may no longer be bought at low cost.

He Got the Rebate.

A fertile minded agent, now one of the widest known life insurance officers in the country, was trying to sell a client a policy on which the agent's share of the first pre mium was $1,500. The client de sired the policy, but he wanted a rebate of $1,000, and this the agent was willing to give. The agent was casting about in his mind for some method of hiding the rebate, when the office cat —they were in the client's office—chanced to rub purringly against his leg. He looked down at the cat and his method was ready. "What a beautiful Angora cat!" he ex claimed, gravely. "My wife loves cats. She'd be tickled to death to have that one. I'll give you $1,000 for it." The client assented, and the policy was taken. Receipts were exchanged, the cat was caged in the waste basket, and wrapped up, and the agent went away with fabled under his arm—and no rebate law could touch him.—World's Work.

Plants as Destroyers.

Strength is not a thing usually connected with maidenly fern; yet, if its roots have not sufficient room, they will break the pot in which the plant grows. Blades of grass will force the kerbatones between which they may spring up out of their place and in a single night a crop of small mush rooms have lifted a large stone.
Indeed, plants have been known to break the hardest rocks. The island of Aldabra to the north west of Madagascar, is becoming smaller and smaller through the action of the mangroves that grow along the foot of the cliffs.
They eat their way into the rock in all directions, and into the gaps thus formed the waves force their way. In time they will probably reduce the island to pieces.

Powerful.

"How much of an actor is Ham phat?"
"How much? Why, that man can make himself believe he is drawing $100 a week when he hasn't seen a cent in a month."
—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Japanese Army Recruiting.

The Japanese army is recruited by conscription, but only 25 of the strongest and healthiest are picked out of every 100 men called up for service; the remainder are sent into the reserve.

Wooden Spoons in Russia.

In Russia an extensive domestic industry consists of the manufac ture of wooden spoons, of which as many as 30,000,000 are made annually. They are nearly all of birch wood.

That's Different.

"Why do you go with Grace?"
"I use her as a foil."
"She says the same about you."
"She does? The devil take her!"

FRAUD ON THE CHINESE.

Shortweight Coins Forced Into Circulation by Their Own Government.

A bad state of affairs has been disclosed in China, according to a report of Vice Consul Cloum, from Hangchow. The mandarins there have been accumulating huge fortunes by the minting of new copper "cash" and dumping them on the people. The new coins are far below weight, and they are intrinsically worth about 25 cash to the old 10-cash piece. Yet there are two mints in Hangchow alone that turn out the new coins, 10 and 20 cash pieces, at the rate of 60 to 85 a minute to each stamping machine, some of the machines running 24 hours a day. The total output of the mints is about 4,500,000 coins every 24 hours, and there is a difference of something like $12,700 between the actual and the face value of the coins in American currency. The merchants have organized a boycott against the new money and the government is forcing it on the people, paying it for labor and the products of the fields, but refusing to receive it for taxes. The result is that there is "endless quarrelling, fighting, and even rioting, over private money transactions, and the people have twice stormed the official yamen to show their displeasure.

The mints have been temporarily shut down and the boycott of the merchants against the new money is fairly effective.

WASN'T TAKING CHANCES.

He Wanted to Make Sure That the Automobile Had Run Over the Chicken.

An automobilist, speeding along a country road at a rapid clip, ran over and killed a chicken. When he returned the same way an hour later a man was standing in the middle of the road, signaling excitedly for him to stop, relates Everybody's Magazine. He brought the machine to a standstill, and there lying on the road side was the poor chicken whose life had been snuffed out. He was prepared for the worst, when the following dialogue took place:

"May I ask did you run over this chicken?"

"Yes, I'm the guilty party, but I am willing to pay for the damage. How much do you want?"

"Oh, that's all right. You see, before I took the chicken home I wanted to make sure how it had been killed. If your automobile ran over it I guess it's good to eat."

Shower of Fishes.

A remarkable phenomenon of a recent thunderstorm was seen in the state of Queensland. In the midst of the rain there suddenly fell from the skies a large number of young fish. The fish fell at first in twos and threes, but subsequently came in dozens, until a large area of ground was strewn with live fish measuring from one and a half to three inches. It is thought that the storm generated a waterspout in one of the rivers, and that the fish were sucked up by it and carried by the wind some long distance before being dropped.

Engagements in West Africa.

In some parts of West Africa the girls have long engagements. On the day of their birth they are betrothed to a baby boy a trifle older than themselves, and at the age of 20 they are married. The girls know of no other way of getting a husband, and so they are quite happy and satisfied. As wives they are patterns of obedience, and the marriages usually turn out a success.

Meeting of One.

The chairman of the Gold Coast Concessions, Limited, attended the company's annual meeting in London in splendid isolation. He could not form a quorum by himself, so he had to declare the evening adjourned.

What Alfonso Said.

"Say, boys, give me a chance to see her without any nonsense, and you shall be invited to the wedding." The Boston Herald alleges was Alfonso's last word to the newspaper men at Cowes.

On Sunday saloons in Louisville were generally closed. Only one saloon was reported to be open.

Drinks were served at hotels if even a sandwich was bought. About 20,000 people visited a park where liquors were sold. Even Louisville can be closed.

Good Common Law.

One of the absurdities of the law was strikingly illustrated at Shrewsbury quarter sessions recently, when a man was charged with stealing a quantity of lead from the veranda of an empty house. The lead, said the Recorder, was attached to the veranda and thereby became part of the freehold. As part of the freehold the lead was land in the eye of the law. Land could not be stolen, and therefore the prisoner could not be convicted of larceny. According to the Recorder the only remedy of the owner against a person taking lead from the roof of a building is to bring a civil action for damages! Truly the law is "a huss" if it was correctly laid down in this case.—London Truth.

Pauper Clergymen.

Some remarkable statements regarding pauperism among the clergy of the Church of England are obtained in a pamphlet issued by Rev. Henry J. Swallow, honorary secretary of the Clergy Provident union. With the permission of the local government board, Mr. Swallow applied to 700 unions and asylums in England and Wales for particulars as to the number of pauper clergymen who had been admitted during the last ten years. The result was to show that no fewer than 42 clergymen had been admitted into county and borough pauper asylums and 61 into union workhouses.

Best-Educated Policemen.

Bolton claims to have the best-educated police force in the world. The local authorities arrange special lectures for the police force, and every policeman not on duty is expected to attend. At these lectures they are taught, among other things, the grounds on which convictions may be obtained and the best way to give evidence.

Paintings and Prints.

"The Swallows have hand painted rugs in their house," said Miss Chestwork. "Indeed!" observed Mr. Clevers, "we have a collection of art carpets at our house, too." "So?" "Yes, they're all covered with footprints!"—Detroit Free Press.
